

Supporting Humanist Schools in Uganda

1. Cash donations are particularly welcome as they are allocated to the most pressing needs. They are used to buy books and to make provision for learning resources in science, art, music and sports. They also allow us to help the schools to ensure that teachers are paid adequately and to make infrastructure improvements such as water supply, electricity, kitchens, toilet and washing facilities.

2. Targeted fundraising for specific large items in excess of £1000. This might appeal to groups wishing to organise fundraising events. We are willing to discuss with the schools and donors the most appropriate targets for such efforts.

3. Scholarships for the schooling of needy children. £300 provides a full boarding scholarship, or £150 if you are willing to share the support of one child with another supporter. Scholarships cover school fees, uniform, exercise books, writing materials and board and lodging. One-year scholarships are very welcome but, where possible, we encourage donors to consider maintaining them for 4 years in order to see their child through their schooling to O-level.

If you are willing to help the Humanist schools to provide much needed schooling to children in Uganda, please send a cheque made out to:

"Uganda Humanist Schools Trust"
